WISCONSIN REALTORS® ASSOCIATION

Wisconsin REALTORS® Association

Affiliate Member Benefits

As an affiliate member of the Wisconsin REALTORS® Association, you'll be part of the most extensive network of real estate professionals in Wisconsin. You will have valuable access with real estate agents and brokers as well as other WRA members such as mortgage lenders, home inspectors, appraisers, developers, property managers and home stagers.

Becoming an affiliate member of the WRA is easy and cost effective. While affiliate memberships are individual, and not corporate memberships, only one individual per board jurisdiction needs to join both a local association and the WRA.

Find out more by contacting your local board of REALTORS®.

Education

Your membership saves you money! As a member, you will enjoy discounts on WRA course fees for continuing education classes, designation classes and sales/marketing classes. You'll also receive discounts on WRA conference and event registration fees.

Publications

Your membership will provide you with WRA publications, full of insightful industry information.

Wisconsin Real Estate Magazine is the only statewide real estate magazine in Wisconsin. This publication provides more than 14,000 readers with industry news, real estate trends, legislative developments, technology reviews, educational updates, market statistics and much more. It is provided to members in both print and electronic formats.

The monthly Legal Update, a highly coveted publication written by WRA staff attorneys, covers new and existing laws and tips for handling legal matters in the field. It is considered the WRA's monthly legal journal, providing members with summaries of the top legal matters in Wisconsin real estate.

Legal Hotline

The Legal Hotline is a members-only service in which WRA members can submit a real estate-related legal question and receive information and feedback from WRA legal department and staff – Wisconsin's leading authorities on real estate brokerage.

Networking and marketing

Affiliate section members receive marketing and networking benefits through the WRA's Find A REALTOR® feature, located on the WRA homepage.

Website access

Members also have access to secured sections of the WRA website, including an online Legal Hotline question submission form, Legal Update library, Legal Hottips and more.

Legislative advocacy

WRA Affiliate members enjoy access to and partnership with, one of the most visible and successful legislative lobbying and advocacy teams in Wisconsin. Legislative issues advocated by the WRA team cover a wide range of real estate related issues including:

- All issues impacting real estate transactions.
- Economic development and job creation policies.
- Education, tax and transportation policies.
- Land use and environmental regulations.
- Local government ordinances impacting real estate.
- Mortgage and lending regulations.
- Multifamily and condominium laws and regulations.
- Political advocacy and elections.
- Professional regulations for real estate licensees, appraisers, home inspectors and related professions.
- State budgets and financing.
